

What is OWT?

The U.S. Army is looking to retain “the best of the best” on Active Duty to put the Tactics, Techniques, and Procedures learned in combat to good use.

Become a U.S. Army coach, teacher, and mentor. If you are redeploying from Iraq, Afghanistan, GTMO, or MFO, you may be eligible to extend your Active Duty in order to pass your knowledge on to fellow Soldiers deploying into the face of danger.

REQUIREMENTS

MOS qualified

Medically and physically fit for duty

Minimum of 6 months time in theater

No pending legal issues requiring absence

Rank of SGT - MSG, CW1 - CW3, or 2LT - MAJ

No recurring family care or dependant issues

Must be willing to accept and continue an unaccompanied tour

Must have enough remaining time in service or be willing to re-enlist

Prefer combat arms (CA); engineer (EN); military police (MP); combat support (CS); or combat service support (CSS) career fields

How to Apply

While still on orders (before receiving your DD214)

- DA Form 4187
- Letter of endorsement from your commander or CSM
- Release letter or memo from your TAG or RRC
- Copies of all mobilization orders and DD214's from previous Mobilizations (since 11 Sept 01)

After demobilizing; within 180 days of leaving theater

- All above documents, except the 4187, plus...
- DA Form 1058R (Request for remobilization)
- DA Form 7349 (Medical Evaluation)
- HIV test verification less than 2 years old

The Brigade OWT Coordinator can provide examples of all documents.

Scan your information and send it to the OWT Coordinator.

All documents must be clearly legible.

Q&A

Q. How long are OWT Tours?

A. OWT Tours typically last from 179 to 365 days.

Q. Can I be promoted while in the OWT program?

A. Participation in the OWT program will not impact your promotion.

Q. Will I have to join the Reserves?

A. No. Soldiers remain assigned to their component.

Q. Can I go to school while serving as an OWT?

A. Professional Education is a high priority if time allows, but the Mission always comes first.

Q. Where will I be performing my duty?

A. Saber Brigade works at mobilization stations around the U.S. When not on missions, Fort Knox is our home station.

Q. Where will I live?

A. All tours are unaccompanied. Soldiers assigned to Fort Knox are housed in local hotels, subject to change as on-post housing becomes available.

Q. Can I take passes or leave?

A. We encourage Soldiers to take leave during the application process. After approval, passes and leaves are based upon mission requirements.

Q. Can my family visit?

A. Absolutely! Whenever you are not on mission, families are encouraged to visit the Soldier's assignment to develop a better understanding of the importance of the TSBN mission and the need for quality Soldiers in this program.
